THE MINISTER OF STATE IN THE MINISTRY OF PARLIAMENTARY AFFAIRS AND THE MINISTER OF STATE IN THE MINISTRY OF HOME AFFAIRS (SHRI M. M. JACOB) : (a) and (b) Reports have appeared from time to time about cases of alleged deaths and other crimes in custody in different States. Registration, investigation, detection and prevention of crime being the responsibility of the State Governments/Union Territory Administrations, action is taken by them to enquire into allegations of custodial crimes and punish those who may be found guilty. Details of such cases are not compiled at the Central Government level.

(c) The Central Government has been giving special attention to issues relating to human rights and has repeatedly stressed upon the need to take immediate and exemplary action wherever casess of violations of human rights, on the part of the law enforcement agencies, come to notice. The State Governments have also been advised to set up special cells to monitor and ensure that effective action is taken against delinquent officials in such cases.

Issues' relating to the setting up of a human rights commission, custodial crimes, atrocities against weaker sections of the society, prison reforms and police training etc., had also! been discussed in a Chief Ministers Conference of Human Rights held on September 14, 1992. It is hoped that the State Governments will take appropriate steps to deal firmly with any instances of violations of human rights and for sensitisation of the law enforcement agencies at all levels.
